

PACIFIC NORTHWEST INVASIVE PLANT COUNCIL 2016 INVASIVE PLANT WORKSHOP BELLEVUE, WASHINGTON – JUNE, 28TH

8:30 - 8:45 - Registration

8:45 - 9:00 - Welcome - Steve Manning, President, PNW IPC

9:00 - 9:45 - Ben Peterson, King County NWCB - Biology and Control of Four Common Aquatic Invasive Plants: purple loosestrife, garden loosestrife, yellowflag iris and fragrant waterlily

9:50 - 10:35 - Jen Parsons, State Dept. of Ecology - Identification and control of flowering rush and other high priority aquatic invasive plants in Washington

10:40 - 11:25 - Marc Hayes, WA Dept of Fish and Wildlife - Oregon Spotted Frog Response to Enhancement of Oviposition Habitat Degraded by Invasive Reed Canarygrass

11:30 - 12:15 - Lunch

12:15 - 1:00 - Lloyd Nackey, University of California, Davis - Impacts of elevated carbon dioxide on two globally invasive grasses

1:05 - 2:05 - Steve Manning, President, IPC - Invasive Plant Control - Tools of the trade. The good, the bad and the ugly

2:10 - 2:55 - Clay Anteau - Seattle Public Utilities - New and Emerging Threats to Plant and Ecosystem Health in the Pacific Northwest

3:00 - 3:30 - Question and Answer session with the speakers

3:30 - Meeting adjourns

REGISTER HERE PNW IPC 2016 INVASIVE PLANT WORKSHOP-BELLEVUE

